STATE MEETINGS

MICHIGAN
 All Michiganders and their friends in the Southland are invited to participate in a social evening at Music Arts hall, 233 South Broadway, Los Angeles, on Friday evening, May 16. A varied program of Michigan talent has been arranged.

MACCABEES, NOTICE!
 Mrs. Julia C. Ginn, deputy grand commander, will be present at the regular meeting tonight. Members are urged to be present.

FINED $25
 Arrested by Officer B. M. Anderson, Roy Wall pleaded guilty to a charge of disturbing the peace of the oil field, and was fined $25 in the justice court.

TORRANCE NOTES
 Mrs. L. M. Acree has returned to her home on Gramercy avenue, after a pleasant visit with relatives in Los Angeles and Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Sine and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sine, of Los Angeles, were entertained recently by Mrs. A. B. Street and son, of Martina avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fitzhugh and family, of Arlington avenue, entertained a number of Los Angeles friends over the week-end at their ranch at Victorville.

HER MESSAGE
 A Lomita lawyer had a woman, relative in Scotland from whom he had "perpetrations." She had been ailing for some weeks, when one morning came a telegram asking the lawyer's wife to go at once, as she (his aunt) was much worse. His wife accordingly went.

During the evening of the following day the husband received this announcement: "Aunt Maude went to heaven at 1:30 returning by 11:59 tomorrow morning."

DR. MARION TRACIE WHITING ENTERTAINS WOMAN'S CLUB

By WINIFRED BARNARD

"Marvellous" and "wonderful" are two words often misused and overworked, but they merely seem adequate when used to describe the beauty and technique of the music rendered by the talented young artists who appeared before the Woman's club last Thursday afternoon with Dr. Marion Tracie Whiting.

Dr. Whiting is a versatile woman with a vivid, charming personality, who, besides being president of the South Side Ebell club and holding offices in many other organizations, is a unique entertainer and radio favorite.

She paused long enough in her busy flight to entertain the women of Torrance with several witty stories and songs. In a more serious vein she gave "The Ships I Have at Sea," by Ella Wheeler Wilcox. The rest of the program was as follows:

Gerhardt Sachse, pianist.
 Ecco Saison _____ Beethoven
 Opus 25, first Etude _____ Chopin
 Natheneale Pench, singer.
 Inquesta Tomba Oscura _____ Beethoven
 Tommy Lad _____ Margretson
 For encore Mr. Pench sang Tosti's "Good-Bye."
 Dr. Whiting concluded the program with Edgar Guest's poem, "Smiles."

The business meeting followed the program. A communication from the Cosmos club was read, naming the Woman's club of Torrance to a true program given in honor of Mrs. Edgar Guest at the Ebell club auditorium Tuesday, May 13, at 1 p. m.

Article I, section 1, of the by-laws, was amended.

The chairman of the building committee stated that the business men had been very successful in their sale of shares for the club building, having gone over their quota.

Mrs. Fitzhugh, federation secretary, reported that ways of making money was the theme of the last conference she attended.

Mrs. Nettie Steinhilber, chairman of ways and means, reported $15 made at the backward party.

The chairman of the May dance given May 1 reported it to be very successful socially and financially, $100 profit being made. It was voted to send a letter to Mrs. R. E. Smith thanking her for decorating the hall for the dance.

Mrs. Gilbert reported 110 out of 135 members were registered voters. A letter from Mrs. Robt. J. Burdette stated that she could be with the Woman's club of Torrance some day during the latter part of June. As she is a busy woman of national importance to clubdom, the date of

ART COLONY "VENUS" TRIES TO KILL HERSELF WHEN JILTED BY "ADONIS"

Miss Constance McDermott.

When Adonis jilted Venus she attempted to commit suicide. Not mythology, but FACT. Miss Constance McDermott, known as "Venus" in the Chicago art colony, took poison when Gail Erwin, noted "Adonis" model of the colony, told her he didn't love her. Her life was saved. She's going back to Minnesota when she is fully recovered.
